Variety of new and revised regulations on FPPC agenda

The Fair Political Practices Commission on Thursday (September 1) will consider approval of numerous new and revised regulations on subjects ranging from post-employment restrictions on public officials to disclosure rules for campaign advertising.

The commission's regular monthly meeting begins at 9:45 a.m. in the FPPC's eighth-floor hearing room at 428 J St. (Fifth and J Streets) in Sacramento.

Thursday's agenda includes seven regulatory projects to be presented to the commission by FPPC staff members. A key duty of the commission is the adoption of such rules to implement the Political Reform Act of 1974 as passed and amended by the state's voters and the Legislature.

The agenda items include:

- Proposed amendments to the post-employment "permanent ban" restrictions on state officers under regulation 18741.1. The amendments would conform the rules to a previous commission opinion and clarify in what matters a supervisor is deemed to have participated as a result of a proceeding being under his or her supervisory authority. (See agenda item #12.)
- Proposed amendments to conform certain campaign advertising disclosure rules to the commission's existing enforcement policy. (See agenda item #13.)

The FPPC meeting agenda also includes variety of enforcement cases, consideration of a schedule of future regulatory projects, and other business.

The agenda and supporting memoranda and materials are posted on our website at www.fppc.ca.gov. Just click on "Agendas" on the left side of the home page and go to “Current Agenda.” The agenda is posted on our website 10 days before the meeting, and letters commenting on agenda items are also posted when received.
